following 9 June 1953 officers and employees of the former SCC collected incriminating evidence against the SPD at bourgeois party agencies in the various counties and districts. For example, LDP chairmen in the counties of the Magdeburg District were approached by Soviet officers who requested documentary evidence of the SED refusing to convene bloc sessions. Personnel of CDU and LDP headquarters in counties and districts were examined on the attitude of the SED toward these parties during recent years. Their statements were taken down in shorthand.
